Umanoff Collection

A compilation of heritage designs rooted in American Modernism and imagined by the late, great mid-century modern designer Arthur Umanoff, MENU's Umanoff Collection profiles uniqueness of design, quality of craftsmanship and natural materials.

The result is a collection of much-loved pieces with a long and rich history, updated to modern sensibilities and carefully crafted to exacting standards. Inspired by the idea of a collector's home and rendered in Umanoff's preferred medium of metal and wood, the interior object collection profiles the designer's unmistakable slender and streamlined silhouettes with industrial edge
